

Discovering the Ancient Don Gorge

Prehistoric Family Fun Day

Conisbrough Castle
Saturday 4th August
10:30 am - 1:30 pm
2:00pm - 4:00pm

Programme

Learn how to identify & handle real prehistoric artefacts from the Don Gorge with Doncaster Museum Service

Ask the expert with Ben Chan prehistoric flint specialist

See what life was like in the prehistoric Don Gorge:
Prehistoric metal working and cooking demonstrations Spectacular Iron Age weapons demonstrations

Prehistoric flint knapping and bone/antler working demonstrations by Practically Historical

The Portable Antiquities Scheme fabulous finds surgery Bring in your artefacts from the Don Gorge for identification and recording, or have a go at finds sorting and recording

Ice Age fun and games with Creswell Heritage Trust

Public Presentations

2:30 - 3:15 Louisa Matthews (South Yorkshire Archaeology Service)
Uncovering the past with the Sites and Monuments Record Service

3:15 - 3:45 Dave Sainty (In-Heritage) Discovering the Ancient Don Gorge

Don Gorge Strategic Partnership

ENGLISH HERITAGE

*in*Heritage accessible and innovative

Historical Promotions & Event Management

www.finds.org.uk